Position Title: Occupational Health Nurse
Employer: Naval Branch Clinic Everett of Naval Hospital Bremerton
Location: Everett WA

Position Description: There could not be a better time to join our team! You will serve as a Nurse Practitioner Occupational Health in the Occupational Health Department of Naval Health Clinic New England, Newport, Rhode Island. Excellent compensation and benefits.

What you will do! Interact with and provide occupational related care to patients in a clinical setting. Provide technical and administrative supervision to support personnel assigned to the clinic. Assign personnel according to the needs of the clinic. Coordinate, manage and implement surveillance programs. Design and implement preventive health education programs.

Requirements:
1. A graduate or higher level degree, bachelor’s degree, associate degree, or diploma from an accredited professional nursing educational program;
2. Pass the National Council Licensure Examination;
3. Active unrestricted license or registration as a professional nurse;
4. At least one year of professional nursing experience providing clinical nursing care and occupational health and safety nursing services to employees in relation to their occupations and working environments; and providing treatment and administering care for illness of occupational origin and injuries that occur at the workplace OR PhD or equivalent doctoral degree.

COHN is preferred, but not required.

Apply Now! Email your resume (no SSN or pictures) which includes beginning and ending dates (month and year), detail description of education, license, and all employment experiences directly to medjobs@navy.mil and enter ABOHN10150574 in the subject line.

Learn More! Please visit
https://www.usajobs.gov/GetJob/PrintPreview/492632800

Contact Name: Judy Safady
Contact Email: medjobs@navy.mil